Hop on board for an entertaining double bill. The first stop is WHERE THE STREETCAR BENDS THE CORNER, a tribute to Milwaukee, circa 1955. With comedy sketches and satirical song, this whimsical tour is devised by actor David Flores and Boulevard's Mark Bucher. Then, enjoy a concert version of the Arthur Sullivan (music) and B.C. Stephenson's (libretto) one-act comic opera, THE ZOO. This musical folly portrays uncaged love at a zoo in 1850's England - but director David Flores transfers the zany fun to Milwaukee in 1955.

This affordable cultural caravan ($5 - $16) occurs at the Plymouth Church - only four shows!
